

740 27 ARMED FORCES RADIO/TV STATION (sq.m./SF)

A radio and/or TV station is normally established in overseas locations to provide U.S. installation population with entertainment and news coverage. As a rule, the coverage radius is limited to the installation and immediate vicinity facilities may be provided. At the present, no space criteria are available for this type of facility. Requirements must be developed on an individual basis.